I'm trying to compile it in the examples folder but I'm getting an error when I try to include the linux/lib/oss/regexp.c file. It says : In function 'iter_set': error:regcomp' undeclared (first use in this function) - This is the exact line : ** #include Donald Trump at a campaign rally in West Palm Beach, Florida, on May 11. (Reuters photo: Joe Skipper) A president who never says he's wrong could change things. The tectonic plates of American politics seem to be shifting, shaking, and at times inching closer to our shores, and it is disorienting to watch. In this era of decline for both left and right, of parties in a state of civil war, of establishment versus anti-establishment, and of a president who straddles both sides of the aisle, the signs are ominous. The tempest of today may take us down a different road than we would like, but at the very least it could save 82157476af
